Dispute Resolution Solicitor

Description
My client, a niche practice in Manchester has a fantastic opportunity for a Civil Litigation Solicitor to join their team.

Responsibilities
As part of their expansion plans they are looking to strengthen their litigation team with this appointment. The successful candidate will be responsible for successful management of a range of civil litigation / dispute resolution cases including:

- Property disputes
- Debt recovery
- Professional negligence
- Tax disputes
- Commercial disputes
- Immigration matters

Dealing with complex and non-routine claims. From the assessment and vetting of new claims and managing the case through to a satisfactory conclusion, exercising appropriate levels of delegation and risk management.

Qualifications
The successful candidate will have proven experience of successfully handing a diverse range of civil matters and be able to deliver the best client advice to ensure the best outcome for the client. It is expected that the successful candidate will be 4+ PQE although other experience levels would be considered.

Job Benefits
In return, the company offers a competitive basic salary depending on experience, home or office-based working, 28 days holiday (including bank holidays) with the option to accrue extra holidays and purchase extra holidays. Additionally, they offer flexible working, pension, progression and company events.
