Professional Negligence Associate

Description

My client is a rapidly expanding and dynamic global law firm. Their highly regarded Professional Negligence team based in Manchester is seeking to appoint an experienced Associate Solicitor.

Responsibilities

Handling a range of professional indemnity matters from the defendant perspective, with a client base as diverse as financial and construction businesses. The role requires providing technical expertise and undertaking in-depth research in order to successfully manage the legal process.

Qualifications

Ideally, candidates will have 3-5 years PQE and will come from a defendant litigation background and have proven experience that will enhance this already highly effective team.

Job Benefits

In return, the successful candidate can expect a competitive basic salary and a benefits package commensurate with working for a global legal practice.
