Real Estate Associate Solicitor

Description

My Edinburgh based client is looking to enhance their Real Estate & Infrastructure Team by the recruitment of a Real Estate Associate Solicitor. Either qualified under Scottish or English law, the role is varied and the career opportunities are great.

Responsibilities

To support and assist Partners and other fee earners within the Real Estate and Infrastructure division to provide an excellent legal service to clients.

Key tasks include:

- Manage your workload competently, professionally, and cost effectively to achieve client satisfaction and firm objectives.
- Be pro-active in the financial control of all your own matters as the fee-earner, including accurate time recording and prompt feeing.
- Examine title and report to clients.
- Negotiate with other solicitors and implement commercial property purchase and sale contracts.
- Negotiate with other solicitors and revise leases for either tenants or landlords.
- Contribute constructively to the work of other members of the Real Estate and Infrastructure division.
- Support your team/division marketing initiatives, events and seminar programme.
- Manage your own technical learning and actively contribute to the forum for the exchange of technical knowledge within your team/division.

Qualifications

- 2+ years PQE (under Scottish or English law) with relevant commercial property conveyancing experience.
- You have excellent communication skills, you are articulate, you communicate clearly, concisely and without any jargon.
- You enjoy working within a team and autonomously on your own initiative.
- You are personable and good at building and developing client relationships.
- You are confident and you have a strong belief in yourself and your own ability.
- You are committed to providing a good client experience and willing to put in extra time and effort when required.

Job Benefits

In return, you can expect a highly competitive salary and benefits package which includes:

- 25 days holiday + 9 public holidays (increasing with service)
- Live Assurance
- Pension Scheme (after qualifying period)
