Senior Associate – Commercial Real Estate

Description

Are you an experienced Commercial Real Estate Associate looking to step up or a Senior Associate who wants to move to a firm committed to ongoing development of both the team and the individual?

My client is an award winning, Legal 500 rated, national law firm. Their continued success in the arena of Commercial Real Estate has created an opportunity for an ambitious and driven Senior Associate.

Responsibilities

Working on a varied and interesting caseload of mainstream Commercial Real Estate work, the opportunity will ensure you are carrying out work at the appropriate level for your skill set, whilst at the same time developing you further to achieve your full potential.

With plenty of client contact and the opportunity to roll your sleeves up and make a difference from day one, this firm already has enough work to keep you busy.

Not only that, you will be supported and encouraged to build relationships and mine for new and exciting work for yourself and the team.

Qualifications

A qualified Grade B Solicitor, the successful candidate will have gained a good level of experience in generalist Commercial Real Estate transactions and have the ability to open doors and build strong relationships with their already impressive client base.

Job Benefits

In return, there are the rewards you would expect from a growing and ambitious firm; including a competitive salary package, generous holiday entitlement, a full package of benefits to pick from and a great social calendar.

The firm are passionate about recognising achievement and hold annual appraisals and promotions.
